

Celebrating the Canonization of Mother Teresa

Prophets of our Time

This book begins with the author's journey to Rome in 2003 for the beatification, and through conversations with Fr Benedict Groeschel and Mgr John Esseff she reveals a privileged insight into the life of Blessed Mother Teresa.

Come and See

Unlike most books of photographs about Mother Teresa, Come and See is unique. It combines the text of a journal handwritten by photojournalist Linda Schaefer as well as some 160 full colour photographs taken as she lived and worked with the Missionaries of Charities and the international team of volunteers in various facilities run by Mother Teresa throughout India.

Mother Teresa granted her unfettered access, as she put it she wanted viewers to actually "see, smell and hear" the real world in which she lived and worked.

Mother Teresa and Me - Ten Years of Friendship

Donna-Marie will never forget the first time she laid eyes on Mother Teresa of Calcutta. Hunched, frail, shorter than one of Donna's own children, the aging servant of the poorest of the poor cut an unassuming figure awaiting the start of Mass with Her Missionary of Charity sisters. They would speak briefly after the liturgy and then spend the next ten years intermittently sharing hopes, dreams, and prayers through the mail and in face-to-face conversations.

Works of Love are Works of Peace

More than four years in the making and published with the permission and cooperation of Mother Teresa, this large format book offers a comprehensive photographic view of the apostolic work and prayer life of the Missionaries of Charity. Destined to serve as an important historical record, this "illustrated prayer book" vividly portrays the peace and joy that can come when "small things" are done with great love. The more than 180 fine art quality tri-tone photographs, along with spiritual counsel from Mother Teresa, will provide a lifetime of rich material for prayer and meditation. Also included and published for the first time ever, with Mother Teresa's special permission, is an appendix containing the contents of the Missionaries of Charity daily prayer book as well as a most personal and profound letter on the interior life written by Mother Teresa.

Mother Teresa's Lessons of Love and Secrets of Sanctity Susan Conroy

An inside view of Mother Teresa's heroic love at work

A moving first-hand account of Mother Teresa and her work, written by someone who worked by her side. As an idealistic young volunteer, author Susan Conroy spent a summer serving in one of Mother Teresa's orphanages and in the Home for the Dying. "In a city where I found hell on earth," she says, "I also found each day a deep sense of peace and incredible happiness." It was an experience that changed her life forever.

Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Leo Maasburg

Mother Teresa's life sounds like a legend. The Albanian girl who entered an Irish order to go to India as a missionary and became an "Angel of the Poor" for countless people. She was greatly revered by Christians as well as Muslims, Hindus and unbelievers, as she brought the message of Christian love for one's neighbour from the slums of Calcutta to the whole world.

Fr. Leo Maasburg was there as her close companion for many years, travelling with her throughout the world and was witness to countless miracles and incredible little-known occurrences. In this personal portrait of the beloved nun, he presents amazing stories about her that most people have never heard, wonderful and delightful stories about miracles, small and great, that he was privileged to experience.
